

U. S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO NEWS MEDIA IDENTIFICATION BADGE AUTHORIZATION FORM

In accordance with the news media relations protocol, as authorized by the court to assist with the safe and orderly coverage of the trial of case number 05cr00545, the United States v. Joseph P. Nacchio, each member of a recognized new media organization covering the trial must register for and obtain a court authorized media identification (ID) badge as produced by the U. S. Marshals Service.

In order to receive a court authorized media ID badge, all news media representatives (including sketch artists and camera personnel) must complete and submit the attached registration form. In registering for the ID badge, each media representative assures the court that he or she has reviewed the published media relations protocol statement and requirements associated with the coverage of the Nacchio trial.

In receiving a media ID badge, each representative agrees to cooperate with the requirements of the protocol statement and understands that the badge and media coverage privileges associated with the badge may be revoked for failure to comply with the protocol requirements, or the further orders and directives of the court, or those directives of federal law enforcement agencies associated with the court.

Issued badges must be publically displayed at all times both inside and outside of the courthouse and may not be duplicated or shared. At the conclusion of the jury trial, media representatives are to return ID badges to the clerk's office or to a court security officer.

The trial is expected to begin with jury selection on March 19, 2007 and is expected to last from six to eight weeks. Registration for a court authorized media badge begins on March 5, 2007. Registration forms are available from the court's internet site, www.co.uscourts.gov or at the main clerk's office. Completed forms may be filed with the clerk's office by faxing the form to the Clerk of Court at 303-844-5016 or by submitting the form in person or by mail to the Clerk of Court, 901 19th Street, Room A238, Denver, CO 80294. ID badges from properly completed registration forms received by March 14, 2007 can be picked up at the same address within twenty-four hours of the date and time of receipt by the court.

Registration forms must be received with a copy of the representative's press credentials as issued by her or his employer. Failure to do so will delay the issuance of the court's media ID.

Registration forms received after March 14, 2007 may generate the issuance of a temporary ID badge. The use of temporary ID badges expires within forty-eight hours. After that time, permanent badges will be available at the above Clerk of Court address and room number.

Questions regarding news media ID badges should be directed to telephone number 303-335-2076. In order to avoid the possibility of delayed authorization to cover the trial, media representatives should submit their registration form and credentials as soon as possible.
